

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

CRIMINAL NO.
15-10390-PBS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JAYME GORDON

INITIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

December 21, 2015

DEIN, M.J.

The above named defendant has been arraigned before this court on December 21, 2015, and has elected to proceed under the automatic discovery rules. Accordingly, the parties shall comply with their discovery obligations set forth in the Local Rules, D. Mass. ("LR") 116.1 through 116.4. Furthermore, it is HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The date for the completion of Automatic Discovery under LR 116.1(c) and for the disclosure of exculpatory evidence under LR 116.2(b)(1) is January 15, 2016. The parties are reminded of their obligation under LR 116.1(c) to notify the court as soon as practicable of any issues that require an alternative discovery schedule.
2. The Initial Status Conference will be held on January 25, 2016 at 10:00 AM in Courtroom #15 on the 5th Floor.¹ The Joint Memorandum addressing those items set forth in LR 116.5(a) shall be filed on or before the close of business on January 20, 2016.
